

SAVE THE DATE
Beneath the Sea's
16th Annual
FREE MARINE CAREERS PROGRAM
Friday, March 27, 2026

<https://beneaththesea.us/marine-careers/>

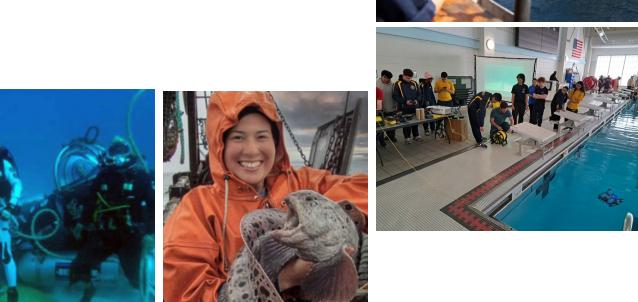

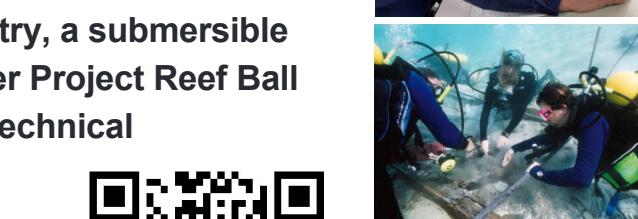

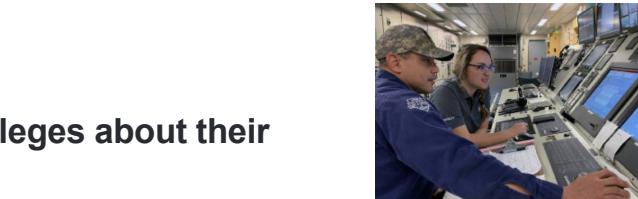

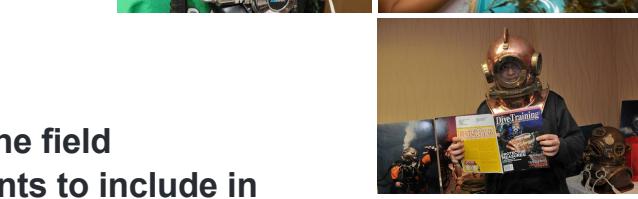

Meadowlands Convention Center, Secaucus, NJ

Registration: 9:00 AM - 9:30 AM

Program: 09:30 AM to 3:00 PM

Hosted by: Dan and Betty Orr

- Hear Presentations -- by ocean industry experts
- Meet Exhibitors -- opportunity to speak with experts in the field
- Participate in Scholarship workshop -- learn what elements to include in your application to help it be more successful
- Participate in Virtual reality environment
- Meet with Representatives -- of universities and local colleges about their marine and ocean education programs
- Meet the industry side of STEM: Trisoptic photogrammetry, a submersible robot, and student-built datasets including the Billion Oyster Project Reef Ball with New York Harbor School, followed by Hands-on with Technical Demonstrations

- 2025: ROV OPERATIONS WITH HANDS-ON PILOTING EXPERIENCES AND 3-D MODELING OF SHIPWRECKS AND MARINE LIFE
Interactive demonstrations - provided by Scuba Tech Inc.
- SCIENTIFIC DIVING ACTIVITY AND COMMERCIAL DIVING DEMONSTRATION
- 2025: NY Harbor School demonstrate skills necessary for commercial diving, scientific diving, and diving in other challenging conditions. Interactive demonstrations with participants.

Those who register for Marine Careers Day will be given a free one-day pass to the Beneath The Sea convention to attend lectures and exhibitor hall for the student and one chaperone.

Bring a lunch with you. Participate in our Working Lunch activities. Only light snacks will be provided.

